2017 SUMMER JOBS/INTERNSHIP WITH FOCUS ON THE NORTHEAST CERTIFIED CROP ADVISOR PROGRAM

Interested in learning about the Certified Crop Advisor Program and developing extension materials for the Northeast Certified Crop Advisor Program?

The Cornell University Nutrient Management Spear Program is looking for a NRCCA Summer Intern!

Applicants should be highly motivated, detail oriented, have an interest in crop advising, and poses good communication skills. Background (courses and work experience) in crop, soil and pest management is desired. Web-programming experience is a plus. Tasks include updating of the NRCCA website (http://nrcca.cals.cornell.edu/) and development of self-study materials (exam practice questions, video editing, etc.) in collaboration with field crops extension faculty and staff. Position is full-time this summer, flexible start date, 10-11 week assignment, $10 per hour. Position is sponsored by the NRCCA Program. Position location in Ithaca. If interested contact, email your application with cover letter, resume, and names and contact information of three references to: Quirine Ketterings, 323 Morrison Hall (607 255 3061 or qmk2@cornell.edu).